Honorable Paul A. Engelmayer
United States District Court
40 Foley Square
New York, New York 1007

Vaeso, Inc. v. High Peak Software Inc.
Docket No. 22-cv-01220 (PAE)

Dear Judge Engelmayer:

Last night my firm and I were retained as new counsel for Plaintiff Vaeso in the above pending case. I am writing to request a 30-day adjournment of the discovery deadlines in the case to permit me to familiarize myself with the case and participate in the completion of the outstanding discovery. While I am an experienced attorney, having just entered my 50th year of practice, I cannot come up to speed quickly enough to meet the existing discovery deadlines.

I understand that your July 11, 2022 Endorsed Order granting a discovery extension states that no further extensions would be granted absent extraordinary circumstances. I believe, respectfully, that the current change of Vaeso's counsel qualifies as extraordinary, but I appreciate this issue is exclusively for you to decide. Counsel for Defendant High Peak Software does not object to this request.

Respectfully yours,

Leo G. Kailas, Esq.

Granted. Due to the change in counsel, the Court will deny the parties' pending discovery motions, without prejudice to their re-filing upon counsel's review of the record and meet-and-confers with defense counsel.

The parties are directed to submit a proposed amended case management plan by July 20, 2022.

The Clerk of the Court is respectfully directed to close the motions pending at dockets 49 and 56.

SO ORDERED.
